

White Square Gallery

WSG GmbH, Mauerstrasse77, 10117 Berlin

assume-consume
young Indian Artists:
Ritesh Meshram, Shruti Machajan,
Arun Peje, Himanshu S. curated by Sandra Khare

September 5th – 27th, 2011

Himanshu S.

Born in 1980, Himanshu S completed his Bachelor in Fine Arts from the Sir J. School of Art, Mumbai in 2003 and served as fellow until 2004.

His solos include 'This is Himanshu S' and 'An interval between two non-occurrences', at the Guild gallery, Mumbai, 2007- 08 and 'Least likely to succeed', Chatterjee and Lal, 2008. His latest participation is in a group exhibition, 'Drawings' by Chemould Prescott Road.

Himanshu's works have always looked into socio-political issues vis-à-vis the self. He is an active member of charitable groups that promote education among under privileged children in the city of Mumbai. Himanshu continues to run a book store of second hand books in the busiest hum of Mumbai.

The artist lives and works in Mumbai.